actLive MVP | Privacy Policy - Last updated March 6th, 2022

Welcome to actLive! We take your privacy very seriously. Please read this Privacy Policy carefully as it contains important information on who we are, how and why we collect, store, use, and share your Personal Information. It also explains your rights in relation to your Personal Information and how to contact us or supervisory authorities in the event that you have a complaint.

We collect, use, and are responsible for certain Personal Information about you. When we do so, we are subject to various laws in the United States and the General Data Protection Regulation which applies across the European Union (including in the United Kingdom), and we are responsible as “controller” of that Personal Information for the purposes of those laws.

1. Key Terms. It would be helpful to start by explaining some key terms used in this policy:

We, us, our	actLive LLC, a California limited liability company
Organizer	Event creators using the Services to create events displayed on the actLive platform for consumers using our Services (a) to consume information about or attend events ("Consumers"), or (b) for any other reason
You, your, user	Organizers, Consumers and third-parties using our Services
actLive Services, Services	actLive's products, features and offerings available to its community members through a mobile application
Personal Information	Any information relating to an identified or identifiable individual, as detailed in Section 2: “Personal Information We Collect About You”

2. Personal Information We Collect About You. We may collect and use the following Personal Information that identifies, relates to, describes, is reasonably capable of being associated with, or could reasonably be linked, directly or indirectly, with a particular consumer or household. This list contains estimated personal information that may collected and may not be exhaustive.

Should additional personal information be collected, the following policy and procedures will apply.

Categories of Personal Information	Specific Types of Personal Information Collected
Identifiers.	Including and without limitation: your name, email address, IP address, account name, and any other information that you choose to provide and/or that enables Users to be personally identified.
Information that identifies, relates to, describes, or is capable of being associated with, a particular individual.	Including and without limitation: name, physical characteristics or description, address, bank account number, credit card number, debit card number, or any other financial information.

Commercial Information (e.g., records of personal property, products or services purchased, obtained, or considered, or other purchasing or consuming histories or tendencies)	Information we obtain from other sources: We may also collect or receive Personal Information including but not limited to your name, email address and other contact information from third-party sources, such as third-party websites and marketing partners, your bank, our payment processing partners and credit reporting agencies. Additionally, Organizers can set up event registration pages to collect virtually any information from Consumers in connection with registration for an Organizer's event listed on the Services. actLive does not control an Organizer's registration process nor the Personal Information that they collect. When you register for, or otherwise provide information to actLive in conjunction with an Organizer event or activity, whether that information is yours or a third-party's, in connection with a purchase, registration, or transfer, that Organizer will receive and may use the information you provide.
Payment Information	In some cases, we may collect your credit card information (e.g., your credit card number and expiration date, billing address, etc.), some of which may constitute Personal Information, to secure certain payments. In addition, if you use our payment processing services, we will collect financial information from you (e.g., your bank account information or an address to send checks) as necessary to facilitate payments and information required for tax purposes (e.g., your taxpayer identification number).

Internet or other electronic network activity information (e.g., browsing history, search history, and information regarding a consumer's interaction with an Internet Web site, application, or advertisement)	We automatically collect certain technical data that is sent to us from the computer, mobile device and/or browser through which you access the Services ("Automatic Data"). Automatic Data, includes without limitation, a unique identifier associated with your access device and/or browser (including, for example, your Internet Protocol (IP) address) characteristics about your access device and/or browser, statistics on your activities on the Services, information about how you came to the Services and data collected through Cookies, Pixel Tags, Local Shared Objects, Web Storage and other similar technologies. "Non-Personal Data" as used in this Privacy Policy is any information that does not relate to a person and/or cannot be used to identify a person. When you register for the Services or otherwise submit Personal Information to us, we may associate other Non-Personal Information (including Non-Personal Information we collect from third-parties) with your Personal Information. At such instance, we will treat any such combined data as your Personal Information until such time as it can no longer be associated with you or used to identify you.

This Personal Information is required to provide actLive Services to you. If you do not provide Personal Information we ask for, it may delay or prevent us from providing actLive Services to you.

3. How Your Personal Information is Collected. We collect most of this Personal Information directly from you—by telephone, text, email, and/or via our website and app. However, we may also collect information:
- From publicly accessible sources (e.g., property records);

- Directly from a third-party (e.g., sanctions screening providers, credit reporting agencies, or customer due diligence providers);
- From a third-party with your consent (e.g., your bank);
- From cookies on our website; and
- Via our IT systems, including:
  - Automated monitoring of our websites and other technical systems, such as our computer networks and connections, CCTV and access control systems, communications systems, email and instant messaging systems;

4. How and Why We Use Your Personal Information. Under data protection law, we can only use your Personal Information if we have a proper reason for doing so, e.g.:

- To comply with our legal and regulatory obligations;
- For the performance of our contract with you or to take steps at your request before entering into a contract;
- For our legitimate interests or those of a third-party; or
- Where you have given consent.

A “Legitimate Interest” is when we have a business or commercial reason to use your information, so long as this is not overridden by your own rights and interests.

The table below explains what we use your Personal Information for and our reasons for doing so:

What we use your Personal Information for	Our reasons
To provide actLive Services to you	For the performance and purpose of our contract with you or to take steps at your request before entering into a contract
To prevent and detect fraud against you or actLive LLC	For our legitimate interests or those of a third-party, i.e. to minimize fraud that could be damaging for us and for you

Conducting checks to identify our customers and verify their identity	To comply with our legal and regulatory obligations
Screening for financial and other sanctions or embargoes	To comply with our legal and regulatory obligations
Other processing necessary to comply with professional, legal and regulatory obligations that apply to our business, e.g. under health and safety regulation or rules issued by our professional regulator	To comply with our legal and regulatory obligations
Gathering and providing information required by or relating to audits, enquiries, or investigations by regulatory bodies	To comply with our legal and regulatory obligations
Ensuring business policies are adhered to, e.g. policies covering security and internet use	For our legitimate interests or those of a third-party, i.e. to make sure we are following our own internal procedures so we can deliver the best service to you
Operational reasons, such as improving efficiency, training and quality control	For our legitimate interests or those of a third-party, i.e. to be as efficient as we can so we can deliver the best service for you at the best price
Ensuring the confidentiality of commercially sensitive information	For our legitimate interests or those of a third-party, i.e. to protect trade secrets and other commercially valuable information  To comply with our legal and regulatory obligations
Statistical analysis to help us manage our business, e.g. in relation to our financial performance, customer base, product range or other efficiency measures	For our legitimate interests or those of a third-party, i.e. to be as efficient as we can so we can deliver the best service for you at the best price

Preventing unauthorized access and modifications to systems	For our legitimate interests or those of a third-party, i.e. to prevent and detect criminal activity that could be damaging for us and for you, and to comply with our legal and regulatory obligations
Updating and enhancing customer records	For the performance of our contract with you or to take steps at your request before entering into a contract, and to comply with our legal and regulatory obligations; For our legitimate interests or those of a third-party, e.g. making sure that we can keep in touch with our customers about existing orders and new products
Statutory returns	To comply with our legal and regulatory obligations
Ensuring safe working practices, staff administration and assessments	For our legitimate interests or those of a third-party, e.g. to make sure we are following our own internal procedures and working efficiently so we can deliver the best service to you, and to comply with our legal and regulatory obligations
Marketing our services, and those of selected third-parties, to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>— existing and former customers;</li> <li>— third-parties who have previously expressed an interest in our services;</li> <li>— third-parties with whom we have had no previous dealings.</li> </ul>	For our legitimate interests or those of a third-party, i.e. to promote our business to existing and former customers

If we intend to use any Personal Information in any manner that is not consistent with this Privacy Policy, you will be informed of such anticipated use prior to or at the time the Personal Information is collected, or we will obtain your consent subsequent to such collection but prior to such use.

5. Organizer Access to Personal Information. Additionally, when you register for an event, sign up for communications, enter a contest, or otherwise input your Personal Information (such as through a web form) to communicate with an Organizer or participate in an Organizer event, that Organizer will receive that information. For instance, if you input your name and email address into a web form for an Organizer offer, activity, or event, the Organizer will receive that information. The Organizer may then send you marketing or other communications, which may be subject to its own, separate privacy policy. Likewise, if you provide your mobile phone number, you may receive information messages related to the service, event, activity, or information in which you've expressed interest.

When you purchase tickets to, register for, or donate to an event, transfer an event ticket or registration to another person, enter a contest, or otherwise input your Personal Information (such as through a web form), or otherwise communicate with an Organizer, or participate in or express interest in an Organizer or Organizer event or activity, that Organizer will receive the information you provide, including your Personal Information, where a ticket or registration is transferred, and the Personal Information of the transferee as well.

6. Third-Party Access to Personal Information. Other third parties involved in or on whose behalf an event or activity is promoted may receive your Personal Information as well. For example, as to fundraising pages, we may provide your Personal Information both (1) to the Organizer charity of the fundraising page and (2) the Organizer of the event to which the fundraising page is linked. In some instances, an Organizer may appoint a third party, which may or may not be affiliated with the Organizer, to create an event or fundraising page on its behalf (we call these third parties "Third-Party Organizers").

For example, and without limitation, a concert venue (the Organizer, in this case) may allow third-party promoters or production companies (the Third-Party Organizers) to create events that will be hosted at the Organizer's venue using its actLive account. In that case, we may provide your Personal Information to the Third Party Organizers on behalf of the Organizers. The same is true for contests and sweepstakes: we may provide your Personal Information to both the Organizer promoting the contest or sweepstakes and any legal sponsor of the contest or sweepstakes (such as a brand sponsor).

We are not responsible for the actions of these Organizers, or their Third Party Organizers (or other downstream recipients of your Personal Information), with respect to your Personal Information. It is important that you review the applicable policies of the Organizers, and if applicable and available, their appointed Third Party Organizers, of an event (and the related fundraising page, if applicable) before providing Personal Information or other information in connection with that event or related fundraising page. Similarly, if you are a member of an Organizer's organization within actLive, your Personal Information will be available to the Organizer and shared with those Third Party Organizers granted permission by the Organizer to view all members of the Organizer's organization.

7. Promotional Communications. We may use your Personal Information to send you updates by email or notifications about our actLive Services, including exclusive offers, promotions, or new Services.

We have a legitimate interest in processing your Personal Information for promotional purposes (see above "How and why we use your Personal Information"). This means we do not usually need your consent to send you promotional communications. However, where consent is needed, we will ask for this consent separately and clearly.

We will always treat your Personal Information with the utmost respect and never sell or share it with other organizations outside actLive and its organizers, third-party agencies, service providers, representatives and agents (the "actLive Community") for marketing purposes.

You have the right to opt-out of receiving promotional communications at any time by:

- Contacting us;
- Using the "unsubscribe" link in emails or "opt out" option in notifications

We may ask you to confirm or update your marketing preferences if you instruct us to provide further Services in the future or if there are changes in the law, regulation, or the structure of our business.

8. Organizer Emails. We allow Organizers to use our email tools to contact Consumers for their current and past events, so you may receive emails from our system that originate with such Organizers and that we send on their behalf. If you registered for an event via the Services, your email address is available to the Organizer of that event. However, Organizers may also import the email addresses they have from external sources and send communications through the Services to those email addresses, and we will deliver those communications to those email addresses on the Organizer's behalf. The Organizer and not actLive is responsible for sending these emails.

Please see Section 7 above on how to opt-out of Organizer-initiated communications.

9. Who We Share Your Personal Information With. We routinely share Personal Information with:

- Our affiliates, including companies within the actLive Community;
- Service providers we use to help deliver our services to you, such as payment service providers, warehouses and delivery companies;
- Other third-parties we use to help us run our business, such as marketing agencies or website hosts;
- Third-parties approved by you, including social media sites you choose to link your account to or third-party payment providers;
- Credit reporting agencies;
- Our insurers and brokers;
- Our bank[s]

We only allow our service providers to handle your Personal Information if we are satisfied they take appropriate measures to protect your Personal Information. We also impose contractual obligations on service providers relating to ensure they can only use your Personal Information to provide services to us and to you. We may also share Personal Information with external auditors.

We may disclose and exchange information with law enforcement agencies and regulatory bodies to comply with our legal and regulatory obligations.

We may also need to share some Personal Information with other parties, such as potential buyers of some or all of our business or during a re-structuring. We will typically anonymize information, but this may not always be possible. The recipient of the information will be bound by confidentiality obligations.

We will not share your Personal Information with any third-party, other than those mentioned in the Privacy Policy and Terms of Use.

10. Business Transfers. As we develop our business, we might sell or buy businesses or assets. In the event of a corporate sale, merger, reorganization, dissolution, or similar event, Personal Information may be part of the transferred assets. We may also disclose your Personal Information in the course of due diligence for such an event. You acknowledge and agree that any successor to or acquirer of actLive (or its assets) will continue to have the right to use your Personal Information and other information in accordance with the terms of this Privacy Policy.

11. Personal Information We Sold or Disclosed for a Business Purpose. In the preceding 12 months, we have sold to one or more third parties the following categories of Personal Information that identifies, relates to, describes, is capable of being associated with, or could reasonably be linked, directly or indirectly, with a particular consumer or household:

- Identifiers (e.g., a real name, alias, unique personal identifier, online identifier, Internet Protocol address, email address, account name, or other similar identifiers);
- Information that identifies, relates to, describes, or is capable of being associated with, a particular individual, including, but not limited to, his or her name, physical characteristics or description, address, telephone number, bank account number, credit card number, debit card number, or any other financial information;
- Characteristics of protected classifications under California or federal law;
- Commercial information (e.g., records of personal property, products or services purchased, obtained, or considered, or other purchasing or consuming histories or tendencies);
- Internet or other electronic network activity information (e.g., browsing history, search history, and information regarding a consumer's interaction with an Internet Web site, application, or advertisement);
- Inferences drawn from any of the information identified above to create a profile about a consumer reflecting the consumer's preferences, characteristics, psychological trends, predispositions, behavior, attitudes, intelligence, abilities, and aptitudes.

- Inferences drawn from any of the information identified above to create a profile about a consumer reflecting the consumer's preferences, characteristics, psychological trends, predispositions, behavior, attitudes, intelligence, abilities, and aptitudes.

12. Where Your Personal Information is Held. We may store Personal Information itself or such information may be stored by third-parties to whom we have transferred it in accordance with this Privacy Policy. We take what we believe to be reasonable steps to protect the Personal Information collected via the Services from loss, misuse, unauthorized use, access, inadvertent disclosure, alteration, and destruction. However, no network, server, database, Internet, or email transmission is ever fully secure or error-free. Therefore, you should take special care in deciding what information you send to us electronically. Please keep this in mind when disclosing any Personal Information.

13. How Long Your Personal Information Will Be Kept. We will keep your Personal Information while you have an account with us or while we are providing Services to you. Thereafter, we will keep your Personal Information for as long as is necessary:

- To respond to any questions, complaints, or claims made by you or on your behalf;
- To show that we treated you fairly; or
- To keep records required by law.

We may disclose your Personal Information if required to do so by law in order to, for example, respond to a subpoena or request from law enforcement, a court, or a government agency (including in response to public authorities to meet national security or law enforcement requirements), or in the good faith belief that such action is necessary to (a) comply with a legal obligation, (b) protect or defend our rights, interests or property or that of third-parties, (c) prevent or investigate possible wrongdoing in connection with the Services, (d) act in urgent circumstances to protect the personal safety of Users of the Services or the public, or (e) protect against legal liability.

We will not retain your Personal Information for longer than necessary for the purposes set out in this Privacy Policy. Different retention periods apply for different types of Personal Information.

When it is no longer necessary to retain your Personal Information, we will delete or anonymize it.

14. International Privacy Laws. If you are visiting the Services from outside the United States, please be aware that you are sending information (including Personal Information) to the United States where our servers are located. That information may then be transferred within the United States or back out of the United States to other countries outside of your country of residence, depending on the type of information and how it is stored by us. These countries (including the United States) may not necessarily have data protection laws as comprehensive or protective as those in your country of residence; however, our collection, storage and use of your Personal Information will at all times continue to be governed by this Privacy Policy.

15. Your Rights Under the GDPR.

Right to Access	The right to be provided with a copy of your Personal Information (the right of access)
Right to Rectification	The right to require us to correct any mistakes in your Personal Information
Right to be Forgotten	The right to require us to delete your Personal Information—in certain situations
Right to Restriction of Processing	The right to require us to restrict processing of your Personal Information—in certain circumstances, e.g. if you contest the accuracy of the data

17. Keeping Your Personal Information Secure. We have appropriate security measures in place to prevent Personal Information from being accidentally lost or used or accessed in an unauthorized way. We limit access to your Personal Information to those who have a genuine business need to access it. Those processing your information will do so only in an authorized manner and are subject to a duty of confidentiality. We also have procedures in place to deal with any suspected data security breach. We will notify you and any applicable regulator of a suspected data security breach where we are legally required to do so.

18. How to Exercise Your Rights. If you would like to exercise any of your rights as described in this Privacy Policy, please:

- Complete a data subject request form by contacting us

Please note that you may only make a CCPA-related data access or data portability disclosure request twice within a 12-month period.

If you choose to contact directly by website/email/phone/in writing, you will need to provide us with:

- Enough information to identify you (e.g., your full name, address, and customer or matter reference number);
- Proof of your identity and address (e.g., a copy of your driving license or passport and a recent utility or credit card bill); and
- A description of what right you want to exercise and the information to which your request relates.

We are not obligated to make a data access or data portability disclosure if we cannot verify that the person making the request is the person about whom we collected information or is someone authorized to act on such person's behalf.

Any Personal Information we collect from you to verify your identity in connection with your request will be used solely for the purposes of verification.

19. How to File a GDPR Complaint. We hope that we can resolve any query or concern you raise about our use of your information.

The General Data Protection Regulation also gives you the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority in the European Union (or European Economic Area) state where you work, normally live, or where any alleged infringement of data protection laws occurred.

20. Exclusions - Personal Information Provided to Others. This Privacy Policy does not apply to any Personal Information that you provide to another User or visitor through the Services or through any other means, including to Organizers on event pages or information posted by you to any public areas of the Services.

21. Exclusions - Third-Party Links. This Privacy Policy applies only to the Services. The Services may contain links to other websites not operated or controlled by us (the "Third-Party Sites"). The policies and procedures we described here do not apply to the Third-Party Sites. The links from the Services do not imply that we endorse or have reviewed the Third-Party Sites. We suggest contacting those sites directly for information on their privacy policies.

22. Exclusions - Children's Online Privacy Protection Act. We do not knowingly collect Personal Information from children under the age of thirteen (13). If you are under the age of thirteen (13), please do not submit any Personal Information through the Services. We encourage parents and legal guardians to monitor their children's Internet usage and to help enforce our Privacy Policy by instructing their children never to provide Personal Information through the Services without their permission. If you have reason to believe that a child under the age of 13 has provided Personal Information to us through the Services, please contact us, and we will endeavor to delete that information from our databases.

23. Changes to This Privacy Notice. This privacy notice was published on March 6th, 2022 and last updated on March 6th, 2022.

At times it may be necessary for us to make changes to this Privacy Policy. In our sole discretion, we reserve the right to update or modify this Privacy Policy at any time (collectively, "Modifications"). Modifications to this Privacy Policy will be posted to the Site with a change to the "Updated" date above as indicated in this Privacy Policy. In certain circumstances, actLive may, but need not, provide you with additional notice of such Modifications, such as via email.

Please review this policy periodically, and especially before you provide any Personal Information. This Privacy Policy was updated on the date indicated above. Your continued use of the Services following the effectiveness of any Modifications to this Privacy Policy constitutes acceptance of those Modifications. If any Modification to this Privacy Policy is not acceptable to you, you should cease accessing, browsing, and otherwise using the Services.

24. How to Contact Us. Please contact us via the actLive account in-app if you have any questions about this Privacy Policy or the information we hold about you.
25. Do You Need Extra Help? If you would like this notice in another format (for example: audio, large print, braille), please contact us (see "How to Contact Us" above).
